I, the undersigned state that:

- I wish to be an active referee
- I realise that I have obligations to myself, the Society, my fellow members, players and officials whom I may meet at rugby
- To fulfil these obligations I shall:
  - be punctual at all times
  - dress and behave in a manner which reflects credit on me and on the Society
  - extend to fellow members, players, officials and spectators as much courtesy as I expect from them
  - avoid becoming involved with players, officials and spectators in a manner which may harm the Society
  - strive to perfect my knowledge of the laws of rugby
  - attend as many monthly meetings and training courses as possible
  - give the Society as much warning as possible if I am unable to referee
  - withdraw from an appointment if I am injured but try not to withdraw for any other reason
  - telephone the match secretary on a Thursday if by then I have received no appointment for the following weekend.
  - honour an appointment if it is humanly possible for me to be there
  - keep the Society informed of my address and other contact details.
